

The following is a final exert from the official records at the time of his death;

"The Inventory of ye goods and chattles of and belonging to ye estate of Richard Beldin of Weathersfield deceased taken ye 22 of August, 1655.

	£	s	d
Impri, In ye parlor, 1 feather bed, 1 pair of sheets, 2 blankets, 1 coverlet, and rugs, 2 pillows wth ye bedsted			06-00-00
It, 1 bed case, 1 boulster, 1 pair sheets, 1 blanket, 1 cotton rug, 1 pillow beere			04-00-00
It, 1 pair of flaxen sheets, 2 pillow beeres			01-10-00
It, 1 Diepr table cloth, 13 napkins			01-05-00
It, 10 pieces pewter			01-06-00
It, in 2 quart potts, 1 candle stick, 5 ockemey, 1 silver spoone, other small things			01-10-00
It, 1 cuboard, 1 table forme to chest and other small things			02-15-00
It, in his wearing clothes			06-00-00
It, 1 musket, 1 karbine, 1 rapier			03-00-00
It, in ye kitchen - 4 brass kittles, other small brass			04-00-00
It, 2 iron pots, 4 cob irons, tramles and other iron ware			04-00-00
It, 1 table, 1 forme, 3 chayers, 1 skreme, 3 cushings			01-06-00
It, in wollen ware and earthen vessels, tinn ware with 1 smoothen iron			03-10-00
It, in working tools wth 1 grindstone			07-00-00
It, in ye chamber in bedding and hogsheads wth some other things			03-00-00
It, in timber for wheels and boulted for small things else			03-00-00
It, 2 cowes			11-10-00
It, 2 swine			04-00-00
It, 15 akers of corn and seaven akers of grass being gathered into ye barne			40-00-00
It, 5 skips of beefe			02-10-00
In a willowing sheete and forks			00-15-00
It, 2 hows, 4 baggs			01-00-00
Total			112-17-00

One researcher, referring to the inventory of Richard's estate, said, "We judge Richard to be a gentleman in the English sense and had been a soldier as the inventory shows he brought to New England a carbine, a musket and a rapier; the rapier is virtual proof that he was a gentleman, and the other arms that he had served in wars.

Children of Richard Bayldon and Margaret Ackerdon are:

161 i. William<sup>23</sup> Belding, born 1622 in Norwalk, Staffordshire, England; died Mar 27, 1655 in Weathersfield, CT. He married Timasine Sherwood 1644 in Weathersfield, Hartford County, CXT; born Abt. 1625 in Kippax, Yorkshire, England.

162 ii. Susan Bayldon, born Nov 16, 1623 in Langfield, England.

163 iii. Mary Bayldon, born Jul 17, 1625 in Wadsworth, England.

164 iv. Grace Bayldon, born Dec 30, 1627 in Wadsworth, England.

165 v. John Belden, born Feb 04, 1630 in Ayringden, England; died Jun 27, 1677